What is the wait list?

If you are unable to purchase a table please consider registering for our wait list by selecting the wait list on the registration page and adding your team to the cart. There is no cost to be on our wait list. All we need is your name and contact information. Should a table become available, you will hear from our Trivia Night Game Masters.

Do I need to know all the team members at the time of registration?

No. After registration you will be contacted by a Game Master for the name of your team as well as the names and email addresses of your team members. We understand that you may need to first coordinate with your team and we ask that you respond with the information in a timely manner so we don't have to nag you.

Does every participant need to register for a table?

No. Only one team member is required to purchase a table at the time of registration. We will reach out to you for more information about your team following the purchase of a table.

What happens after a table is purchased?

After a table is purchased you will be contacted by the Chatham Education Foundation Trivia Night Game Masters for the names and email addresses of your team members. You should also select a name for your team and start thinking about a theme and/or costumes for the event.

Does my team need to have a theme or dress up for the event?

No. Although clothing is mandatory, teams are not required to have a theme or to dress in costume, but there are advantages to getting creative in the game. The Trivia Night staff will select and award prizes, including bonus points, to the teams who show the most spirit and creativity. Details will be sent by email to registered team members.

Will alcohol be served at the event?

The event will be BYOB at both locations. Trivia Night is meant to be fun, lively and festive and we certainly want all participants to have a great time. So go ahead, grab a few of your favorite beverages and all the food and snacks you can carry while we focus our energy on putting together an exciting game to flex your intellect. All we ask is that if you choose to drink, please drink responsibly.

Why am I not able to register for this event?

The plain truth is that the Trivia Night fundraiser is a popular event, tables are in high demand, space is limited and we operate on a first come, first served basis. Due to popular demand, this sell-out event will once again be hosted at two locations – Mountainview and Fish & Game. As the hottest event in town we expect that the venues will sell out quickly. So be ready to register at 9 pm on Thursday, October 17th.
